

CLANK OF SABERS
HEARD IN ULSTERBritish Strengthen Garrisons as Crisis Approaches in Home Rule Situation.

LONDON, March 20.—Repeated conferences of government officials, the hurried departure of Sir Edward Carson for Belfast, rumors of impending arrests, and the possible occupation of Ulster by government troops were evidences today of a crisis in the Irish home rule conflict.

With the Unionists declaring that the government has doubled the number of troops in all Irish barracks, the greatest activity was evident among the Ulster volunteers. Unionists firmly believe that the government plans some coup.

The leaders assert that the Ulsterites cannot be held in check much longer, and that any military action which may be taken will certainly be followed by the "war" so long threatened.

Liberals Admit Crisis.

The Marquis of Londonderry and other prominent Ulster leaders had returned to Belfast today, and with the Bonar Law motion for the censure of the government defeated in the house of commons, reports of impending developments of the most serious nature prevailed.

Liberals today admitted that the situation was serious but expressed confidence in the precautions taken. The sudden inflammatory reports from Ulster, they declare, indicate clearly that the Unionists realize they have been defeated in the parliamentary battle.

Premier Asquith and other liberal leaders have all but broken under the strain of the bitter fight, it was declared today. The premier is said to be in very poor health.

Belfast Welcomes Carson.

BELFAST, March 20.—Firing a revolver salute, shouting and wildly cheering, a great crowd welcomed Sir Edward Carson here today, after the Ulster leader's hasty trip from London, following stormy scenes in the house of commons yesterday, when Andrew Bonar Law challenged the government to hold a referendum on the Irish home rule bill and demanded a vote of censure for the government's attitude.

The situation is believed to be extremely critical today. A great quantity of records were removed during the night from the unionist headquarters. High-powered motor cars, with volunteer guards, drove up to the headquarters at top speed, were filled with records, and then whizzed away. Their destination was kept secret, as the Ulster leaders apparently fear a government raid.

Clank of Sabers.

The clank of sabers was heard throughout Ulster today. Unusual activity in the movement of British troops gave every indication that the government was preparing for any eventuality. Heavy detachments of troops arrived at Newry, Omagh, Armagh, and Enniskillen during the day. Only small garrisons have been stationed at these points.

It was reported arrangements were being made to increase the garrison at Belfast.

Fletcher Asks Retrial

Of Conspiracy Case

An application for a rehearing in the case of James J. Fletcher, a bondsman, convicted of conspiracy to defame his wife, Julia B. Fletcher, and sentenced to five years' imprisonment, was made to the District Court of Appeals today.

The action also covers the cases of Fletcher's alleged accomplices, George Noble, colored, and May King, who were sentenced to two and three years' imprisonment, respectively.

The Court of Appeals recently reversed the judgment of the lower court with respect to the sentences. A rehearing is sought in the hope of obtaining a new trial.

D. A. R. JOIN DISTRICT
IN ITS TAX CAMPAIGNExecutive Committee Appeals to Congress to Make This City
a Model Capital.

The executive committee of the Daughters of the American Revolution has adopted a resolution calling upon Congress to deal liberally with the District, and to recognize the duty of the people generally to aid in making this city a model capital. The resolution was sent to H. B. Macfarland, chairman of the executive committee of the committee of 19, and pledges the support of 50,000 women throughout the nation.

Mr. Macfarland also received this morning from Miss Lella Mechlin, secretary of the American Federation of Arts, a roster of the constituent members of that organization, numbering more than 30. These associations have a membership that totals approximately 25,000. Each organization will be asked to help the campaign.

In commenting upon the approval by the House of the selection of a commission to investigate the fiscal relations of the District and the Federal governments, Mr. Macfarland said that inquiry by a commission is better than destructive legislation, but that he could not see any need for either.

The intelligent members of Congress, he added, do not want a change in the present fiscal arrangements of the District, but are proud of the progress being made in this city. All that is necessary, he said, is to present clearly the facts and Congress will act properly.

The resolution adopted by the Daughters of the American Revolution reads: "Resolved, That the executive committee of the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, representing 50,000 patriotic women, living in all parts of our country, respectfully requests the Congress of the United States to consider the interests of the National Capital in a liberal spirit, and to recognize the right and duty of the people generously to aid in making the City of Washington a model capital, worthy in every way of our great country, and capable of arousing sentiments of pride and patriotism in the breasts of all Americans whose privilege it may be to visit the National Capital."

WANTS UNCLE SAM
TO CENSOR MOVIESThe Rev. Wilbur Crafts Pleads
for Hughes Bill Before Committee.

Government censorship of the movies was demanded today by Rev. Wilbur F. Crafts, superintendent of the National Reform Bureau, before the House Education Committee. He pleaded for favorable reports on the Hughes bill to supplant voluntary and censorship boards with a national board, and was supported by the Rev. Henry N. Prince, assistant superintendent of the Reform Bureau and the Rev. Sherif, president of the New York State Civic League.

The so-called "National Board of Censorship," he said, has not the power to compel makers to submit all films for examination, and hence improper pictures are exhibited. The Hughes measure was endorsed in a letter from President Samuel Trigger, of the New York Association of Moving Picture Exhibitors.
